#1-A Workshop: Enjoying Painting with Watercolors; Judson Newbern, instructor

Instruction will focus on gaining experience with basic elements that require mastery to paint with transparent watercolors. Attention will be on helping each participant define what he or she wants to capture in their choice of subject. Beginner to intermediate levels. Some drawing skills are helpful. Photographs of ranging subject matter provided for those who don't bring images. Students provide their own materials unless they arrange otherwise to purchase a kit containing basic pigments, and paper. Goal is to have fun while increasing an understanding of how many variables come into play in creating paintings in this very expressive media—that often has a mind of its own!

$25 class fee; maximum 8; reserve a kit for $40.

John Gaddis Watercolor Workshop Fund

#6-A Georgia O'Keeffe Flowers: Mon.-Wed., 2:30-4:00 p.m.

Eaglets will learn about Georgia O'Keeffe, who she was as a person, how she was a famous pioneer in the art world, and her love of nature. They will draw by observation from several examples of real life or artificial flowers. While drawing, they will "zoom in" on the flower of their choice making sure the petals go off the edge of the page, replicating O'Keeffe's style.

#6-B George Rodrigue Blue Dog: Tues.-Thurs., 9:00-10:00 a.m.

Eagles will learn about George Rodrigue, his style and what inspired him to paint his first blue dog. George Rodrigue was from New Iberia, Louisiana and is famous for his Cajun inspired Blue Dog series that started in 1990. Eagles will enjoy making their own dog unique, adding whatever they wish and changing the color if they choose.

#6-C Radial Tin Mandalas: Wed.-Fri., 10:15-11:45 a.m.

Buzzards and Falcons will learn the concept of radial design by creating embossed mandalas on 36 gauge tin. The beauty of these pieces starts to take place when students start to color them in, using sharpies. The finished result is eye-catching, iridescent work of art that looks great framed.

Workshop: Drawing in Color with Oil Pastel, Sarah Masters, instructor

REGISTER HERE

Explore the range of possibility offered by drawing with oil pastels on paper. This is very portable medium is a good choice for travel or plein air work. Application ranges from the loose sketch to painterly finished pieces. Also useful for preparatory studies for paintings on canvas.

The workshop will offer both an introduction to the medium of oil pastels as well as instruction in basic drawing skills. Students of all levels are welcome, previous drawing experience is helpful. For subject matter participants will work from still life and surrounding landscape. Working from photos is permitted but not preferred.

Two options are available for supplies:

- 1.) For those wanting a simple introduction to the medium, the FULL KIT ($45) contains one set of 36 colors Holbein Academic oil pastels (a good grade student pastel), high quality Stonehenge drawing paper, drawing pencil, scraper, and blender.
- 2.) For those who prefer professional quality oil pastels, you may purchase the oil pastels on your own and opt for the PARTIAL KIT ($15) which includes Stonehenge paper, drawing pencil, scraper, and blender.

Suggested Supply list to be provided.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding the class or the supplies. I look forward to joining you for a creative week of discovery at Monteagle!

#8-A Bridge Workshop: *Highlights of Modern Bridge! Jerry Bull, instructor

Casual and Enjoyable Bridge lessons with Jerry Bull:

Following up on six prior years (!) of successful "Somewhat Advanced Bridge Class" session, the instructor will reprise highlights from previous classes with some added twists from his extensive private lessons groups. Monday afternoon and Tuesday through Friday morning will feature a combination of lecture and detailed hand analysis; remaining afternoons will be actual duplicate play with a few "secret" hands featuring lesson issues. Some special topics will include the "Rule of 20", Support Doubles, Texas Transfers, and Reevaluating Hands during the Auction. As always, a valuable detailed handout booklet will be provided.

Attendees should feel comfortable with most normal bidding techniques and declarer play. Lessons will reinforce skills for more accurate bidding, declaring, and defending.

Those on the waitlist may observe non-playing sessions by video conference.
