Woman's Association Updates

Many things are happening on Monday, July 9th — a Woman's Association meeting at 10:00 am, with plenty of opportunities to volunteer at the upcoming Cottage Tour (see p. 2); Mah Jongg at 2:30 pm on the left side of the porch, which continues to be one of our most popular events; informal lecture with Rev. Bob Henderson at 4:30 pm on the right side of the porch.

Chickadee parents are welcome on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10:00 am. This is a parent-driven group of parents and children under 3 years of age. To make this program successful, we need a volunteer parent to organize each week; Chickadees are not a Winfield event, just using the porch as the venue. After last year's successful launch of Chickadees, we hope more parents will get involved and keep it going!

There will not be a porch party on Tuesday, as the Tennis Tournament kickoff party will be that evening (see p. 2). The third Adult Porch Party of the season happens on Thursday, July 12, from 5:30-7:00 pm. Please bring an appetizer and beverage to share. The party will end at 7:00 pm so everyone can attend Twilight Prayers next door.

Thanks to Jim Reed and Jack Arnold for the wonderful donation of speakers to provide music at our porch parties!

Dues for the Woman's Association are taken by the hostess all season; ladies pay $20 and men pay $25 and get a signature apron for the Men of the Winfield Club. There are currently 20 gentlemen who have joined, and we would love to welcome more! Cash or check accepted at Winfield.

See you on the Porch soon!

— Cindy Huston, Winfield hostess

The Next Big Thing! Cottage Tour 2018

With the 4th of July under our belts, it's time to look toward Friday, July 20 and the MSSA Woman's Association's 55th annual Cottage Tour and Bazaar! Join the fun for a day full of historic cottage tours, and unique shopping opportunities. Kent Freeman will present "Sticks and Stones ... Organic Bouquets and Centerpieces" at his 1:00 pm Floral Demonstration in Warren Chapel.

Tour tickets are $15 in advance and $20 day of the tour, with box lunches for $15 by Emily Frith of Corner Market Catering. You can get a sneak peek behind the curtain and learn what makes our Cottage Tour so successful by participating in any of the wonderful volunteer opportunities available. Sign up at the Winfield House to be a docent, drive a golf cart, bake for the Bake Sale, serve box lunches, or sell tickets. Make new friends and help support the Woman's Association and local plateau nonprofits. # Youth Updates

Wow, did this week fly by or what? It was the most people I have seen at the relay games in a while, which for a second I questioned whether my 120 eggs would be enough. No worries, I had enough! It was a fun toss despite the branches that continued to interfere. Thank you to the tremendous Youth Staff who continues to give their all in every event. If you see them, please take a second to let them know how well they are doing! A huge thank you also goes to all our friends who continue to show up for all and any events we organize. It keeps things a blast! The joke for the week is: My wife warned me not to steal the kitchen utensils... but it's a whisk I'm willing to take.

Announcements

Safety First

The MSSA security team is at your service. If you have any emergency--medical or otherwise--call 911, but our seasoned team is here to help for non-emergency situations. If you have a safety issue or see suspicious activity anywhere on the grounds or at the Point, don't hesitate to call (931) 607-8615 after 5 pm or call the office during business hours. There are no silly concerns--it's better to call and quell your fears than to let something go because you are afraid of a false alarm.

Consider putting the security number by your home phone and/or plugging it into your cell phones.

Kids got cell phones? Plug the security number in those too.

Together we'll keep MSSA the safe haven it is!

Morton Memorial UMC Annual Fish Fry

Morton Memorial United Methodist Church invites everyone to our 12th annual Fish Fry, to be held on the church grounds in Monteagle on Saturday, July 28th from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. Tickets are $12 for adults and $6 for children. Please join us for fried fish, french fries, hushpuppies, cole slaw, tea/water, and the most wonderful desserts to top it off. Take-out is also available.

All the proceeds go toward our community outreach programs, such as Tools 4 Schools and Christmas on the Mountain.

Call the church office at (931) 924-2192 if you need further information or have questions.

Don't Miss Sundays at the Chapel

Each week, clergy from different denominations lead our services, so participants can enjoy a variety of ministries. All of these services are held in Warren Chapel, one of our most iconic structures, and many people will tell you that there is nothing like sitting in our beautiful chapel in the gloaming of a summer evening and hearing the crickets and birds as the day draws to a close. It is the perfect time for reflection and a reenergizing of our spiritual selves.

Please arrive in time to be seated at least 10 minutes before the start of service. As you might imagine, late arrivals are somewhat disruptive. Also, the last row on the right as you enter is reserved for our youth participants at Sunday services.

— Greg Maloof, Chancellor of Warren Chapel

Thomas Carr may have a future in climbing, as evidenced by his efforts to climb the flag pole on the Mall. Photo from Virginia Curry.

The Youth Staff works very hard to ensure the youth programming is fun, engaging, and safe. Thank them next time you see one of them! Photo from Summer Stroud.

Program Book Tip of the Week

Water aerobics instructor and lecturer this week Jenny Berk is currently working on a project for a church in what might possibly be the most romantic-sounding city in Europe. Which one? Read her bio to find out!

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly was organized by Charter issued by the State of Tennessee on October 4, 1882 for the purpose of: “... the advancement of science, literary attainment, Sunday School interests, and the promotion of the broadest popular culture in the interest of Christianity without regard to sect or denomination.”

The Mission of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is to be a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

Week 5 Program Descriptions

Monday-Friday

1:30-4:30 pm, Maney-MacLeod Pavilion: “Oil Painting under the Pavilion,” with Kim Barrick: Join Kim Barrick in the fresh air experimenting with paint each afternoon. Traditional and water-soluble oils (no solvents necessary) will be covered. Individual and group exercises, demonstrations and individual instruction will meet each student where they are. Try something new or improve skills and enthusiasm for painting.

Monday

4:30 pm, Winfield Porch: “Relational Rules for the Road,” with Rev. Bob Henderson: How can our most valued relationships be the source of greater joy and reward? We’ll look at cultivating richer personal relationships by focusing on five biblical principles. Come join us as we learn to navigate our close relationships on the road of life in an enjoyable, fun and helpful way.

Tuesday-Thursday

2:30 pm, Winfield Basement: “The Great Art Forgery Escape Room,” with Drs. Brooke Barnett & Tom Mould: Scotland Yard needs your help. Notorious art forger Beau Gus Paynter is about to auction off another fake painting for his biggest score yet, and only you can stop him. You and your team have found his secret studio in the Winfield Basement in Monteagle but you set off one of his booby traps and now you’re locked in. It’s up to you to find the clues, decipher the riddles, and solve the mystery. But the auction is in an hour and the clock is ticking. Your team will have to work together to stop the sale of the forgery and catch the thief if you ever hope to escape. Ages 10-100; max group size of eight.

Tuesday

10:45 am, Warren Chapel: “The Cross in Contexts: Rethinking Jesus’ Saving Death,” with Rev. Suzanne Henderson: Have you ever wondered how an empire’s most loathed tool of oppression became, for some, a vehicle for grace and salvation? Have you ever wondered how Jesus’ death saves us, and from what? Based on The Cross in Contexts: Suffering and Redemption in Palestine, this conversation will explore the liberating power of the cross in the context of Roman-occupied Palestine and in our world today.

Wednesday

10:45 am, Warren Chapel: “A Day with Jack,” with Lynne Tolley: Lynne will discuss her 34 year career at Jack Daniel Distillery which includes being proprietress at Miss Mary Bobo’s Boarding House, becoming a master whiskey taster,

4:30 pm, Harton Hall: “Platter Salad: Think for Yourself, Unlock Your Creativity, and Serve it up on a Platter,” with Mindy Merrill: We’ll explore the platter as your blank canvas for creation, the salad as a collage, even better the site for your miniature installation art.

5:45 pm, Winfield Porch: Tasting with Lynne Tolley, Master Whiskey Taster: Lynne will explain the various Jack Daniel Whiskies that we will be tasting. Similar to a wine tasting, she will tell the four reasons why people drink Jack Daniel over other brands. Lynne will share stories about her great grand uncle, who made Lynchburg, TN famous.

Thursday

9:30-11:45 am & 2:30-4:30 pm, Pulliam Center: “Being a Purposeful Parent and Navigating the Emotional World of Kids,” with David Thomas: This class centers around four basic concepts for being an intentional parent. We’ll discuss the purpose of parenting, the significance of our contribution, and some foundational ingredients our kids need from us. This time will also invite you to consider some important questions your kids need you to ask. The afternoon workshop will focus on understanding the emotional development of children. Parents and educators will be introduced to practical ideas for furthering a child’s emotional development.

8:15 pm, Warren Chapel: String Ensemble of the Chattanooga Symphony & Opera

Friday

10:45 am, Warren Chapel: “Beyond Singing, Sermons, and Scripture: An exploration of textile arts for worship,” with Jenny Berk: Art, when allowed, plays an important role in worship. Textile art, such as banners and paraments, helps involve us more deeply by employing our visual senses. Take a short trip through the history of church textiles, learn about the symbolism involved, and explore the design and construction process of some of today’s church textiles.

2:30 pm, Shady Dell: “Handmade Spa Workshop: Scrubs, Bath Salts, and More,” with Debbie Blinder: Learn how to make homemade, all-natural spa items, such as sugar scrubs, bath salts, bath candles, and more.
