FROM THE PRESIDENT: AND JUST LIKE THAT...

My Pilates instructor at home always ends every class by saying, “And just like that, class is over!” That’s how the 141st season has felt.

It seems like only yesterday that the youth staff was team building and preparing to entertain our youth... that the platform was ready to educate, enlighten, and challenge us with lectures, workshops, art classes, hikes, and readings in the Writers’ Grove.

We attended dinners on the Chapel grounds, twilight prayers, Sunday school, and worship services!

We sat on porches, we went to the pool, we read books, we played mahjong, tennis and pickleball, we visited with friends old and new.

Before we knew it, we were on the Mall for the 4th of July picnic!

Our cottages were on tour, and we bought goodies from the bake sale and bazaar.

Hummingbirds trick-or-treated in the Cabbage Patch, Eaglets swam in waterfalls, Eagles went caving, and Buzzards & Falcons went on more than one overnight!

It rained, it was sunny, it was cool, and it was hot! And before we knew, it we were approaching week 7!

Heads were bowed in hushed conversation all around the Assembly as we got ready for our caucus meetings and annual membership meeting and just like that... we are at the start of week 8.

What a wonderful season it has been! As we bid goodbye this week to our family and friends I think of the words of our closing hymn, “ God be with you, ‘til we meet again.”

With gratitude for a wonderful season,
— Amanda Moody, President

WEEK 8 PLATFORM PREVIEW

Nationally recognized photographer Stephen Alvarez is passionate about preserving and sharing humanity's oldest artworks—that's why he founded the Ancient Art Archive in 2016. The project works to capture the earliest artworks around the globe, using photography and the newest image-based virtual reality technology. Stephen is also an award-winning National Geographic photographer, filmmaker and explorer. The magazine has featured his work more than a dozen times, including on the cover of the July 2023 issue. Stephen will share his stories and work in a Thursday evening lecture in the Auditorium: "The Art Beneath Our Feet: Discovering the Largest Cave Art in the Americas is On the Cumberland Plateau."

Surely you've noticed brightly painted patterns on the sides of barns as you're driving around. But how did this movement of quilt-like decorations get their start? Elizabeth Curtis will lecture

Tuesday morning on "Barn Quilts: How They Started and Where They're Going." Elizabeth is the owner of Liz's Barn Quilts. Her passion for this movement inspired her to help establish the St. Claire County Quilt Trail in Michigan, which has resulted in more than 1,000 barn quilts in 45 states.

Some of the barn quilts made at Liz's Barn Quilts in Nashville..

This week's Plateau talk and excursion features Stephanie Colchado-Kelley, who will lecture Wednesday morning on "What We Learn From the Land: Indigenous Narratives on the South Cumberland Plateau." Stephanie is no stranger to many of us on the Plateau; through her work with the Office of Civic Engagement at Sewanee, as well as her advocacy for food access and community wellness through the nonprofit Growing Roots. Stephanie will lead a Plateau walk on the theme of "The Native Plant Space" at 1:00 pm Wednesday; meet at the Front Gate to join the walk.

This theme runs through the week's subsequent morning lectures, too. Jess Wilson will lecture Thursday morning on "The Future of Farming and Rural Communities." Wilson is perhaps best known locally for her years of service in the Rooted Here farmer's market that shares local farmers' bounties at the Sewanee Community Center. She is the president of the Southeast Tennessee Young Farmers Coalition.

On Friday, Katharine Ray will lecture on "Navigating Nutrition." Katherine is the executive director of the Heimerdinger Foundation, an organization that provides about 800 meals per week to people facing cancer in the Nashville area; learn more at hfmeals.org. As part of her program, Katherine will include a demo and food sampling with a take-home recipe.

At our traditional Saturday night luau, please bring a side dish to complement the BBQ, which will be provided. The luau takes place at the pool from 6-8:00 pm.

CLAIM YOUR COTTAGE MAP!

Last summer Kent Rollins came to the Open House for the MSSA Archives and offered to help facilitate the updating of the assembly from the 1980s. Throughout the fall a digital map was created with additions of various public areas. Kent was very generous with his time and expertise. When the map was complete, he donated two hundred maps to the Assembly, printed on matboard. As a result of Kent's generosity, the Archives Committee would like to give each cottage a map. You can pick up your map at the office during the season.

Several MSSA cottage owners have bought a frame for their map from Amazon.com. Look for Americanflat (all one word) 20x30 poster frame in black with polished plexiglass. It fits perfectly! Cost: $25.19.

RENTERS' SPOTLIGHT: A WARM WELCOME AT SEASON'S END

Gordon Murray remembers well his time spent here as a child. His mother, a close friend of Lethia Watson, would rent a cottage, bringing her son, their parakeet, and their dog. Lethia's twins, Jake and Jack, were close in age, making for perfect companions. As the ladies enjoyed their time in conversation on the porch, the boys would ride their bikes around the grounds and over to Jerry's Market for broasted chicken and to play arcade games.

For those unfamiliar, Jerry's was the only market for groceries in town before the Piggly Wiggly. Located where the current, and much loved, Mountain Goat Market now delights us all, a trip to Jerry's, later turned Ritchie's, was part of the Mountain experience for several decades... along with the Dairy Queen, of course.

The Huntsville native, now Atlantan, is more than excited to share this experience with his family. As we spoke on the phone, I could not help but imagine all of the surprises that are in store for the Murrays' first visit. Gordon has tried to explain to their children, Kate (8) and Parker (10), what to expect during this vacation.

"It's like summer camp for the whole family."

"But what if we get lost?"

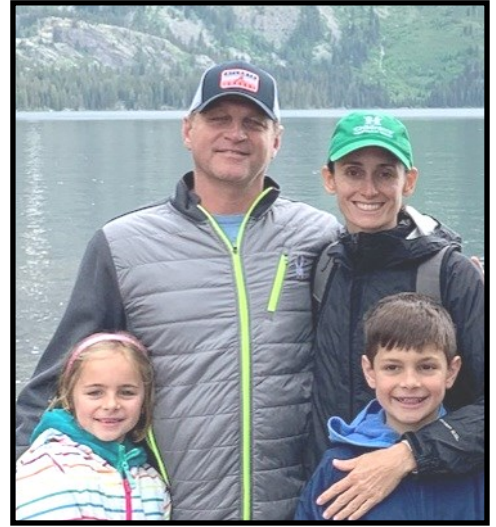

"Just stop and ask someone. They'll help you."

When inside these gates, this is a perfectly reasonable and justifiable response; however, the conversation may be very different for the two when at home in Buckhead. Their father has reassured them that this is the perfect place to practice their cycling skills on quiet roads with conscientious drivers. I informed him about the Quiet Hour; he responded that they are excited for the time to catch up on reading. Between this and the youth programs, Gordon and Margaux Murray are anticipating embracing all that our Chautauqua has to offer.

I am excited for this family to join us during this last week of the 141st season, where they may relax and enjoy the restorative nature of visiting (as our Mission states) a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

Of course, Frances, their beloved labradoodle, will undoubtedly have a blast, too!

— Mindy Melton

What's better than being a kid at the Assembly? Being a grandpa, obviously. Overton Thompson had a big time with his granddaughters, including a tennis lesson for Elle Eischeid—who's just 3 years old! Her sister Caroline joined her for a ride on Grandpa's golf cart. Photos from Robin Thompson.

YOUTH UPDATES

The youth have been an integral part of the Assembly from its beginning, and many consider Monteagle a place where children can develop both spiritually and physically in a safe environment. Programs for children ages 3-18 are available throughout the summer. Please see the program book, pages 10-15 for guidelines, policies, and rules.

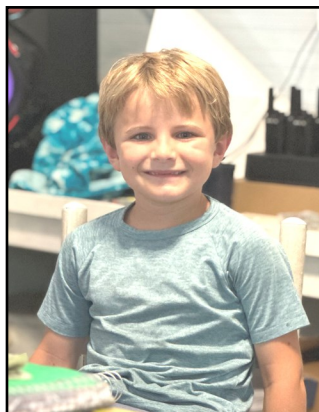

FROM THE YOUTH COORDINATOR

Week Seven was a blast, and as this week comes to a close, I am reflecting on all of the unforgettable moments and incomparable memories we have made thus far this summer in this beautiful place. Monteagle really is magical.

This week saw hot, sunny weather and a wide range of awesome excursions from Fiery Gizzard Blue Hole to caving at Soda Straw to Denny's Cove and a very muddy, amazing swimming hole. We went ziplining through the trees, we crafted and trick-or-treated, and—most importantly—we spent time with family and friends new and old. The Buzzards and Falcons had the opportunity to go on “The Walk,” a four-day backpacking trip through the mountains of North Carolina at the Shining Rock Wilderness Area. Our amazing head Youth Director Georgia Elder brought back this trip, inspired by her father Bill Elder and David Crais, who led the trip in the early 1990s. With the help of our Adventure Coordinator Anna Kate Tibbs, they planned this experience and are currently somewhere in the mountains on a wonderful adventure (returning tomorrow). We wish them all the best and know they are having the time of their lives!

As we move into Week 8—bittersweet as it is—we look forward to ending the summer the way we started it: with energy, enthusiasm, and the Mountain spirit!

I would like to take a moment to thank the many people who helped make our seventh week such a success. Thank you to Julia Curry, Tara and Ryan Cosgrove, Richard and Corinne Mesteyer, Mary Susan Kennedy, The Plylers, and Will and Jen Reynolds for hosting our progressive suppers! We know these dinners take a lot of preparation and hard work, and we are so thankful for you all! Thank you to Harriet Plyler and Claire Richards for being our amazing weekly guest readers during Storytime! I also want to thank all the parents who drove on excursions and lent us their cars this week. These activities would not have been possible without your help. We appreciate all these contributions!

Will Green pitched in at the Snack Shop this week. Do we see a future Snack Shop manager? Photo from Lyn Knopf.

We are looking forward to Week Eight and all the timeless moments it brings! We have one more week together and we will live it to the fullest!

Please make sure to review the Youth calendar and bulletin board by the Auditorium for all things youth related. Thank you all for helping make this week (and this summer) such a success!

Hummingbirds and Crafts Corner: Thank you to all the amazing parents, families, and volunteers who handed out candy during Halloween in July! The Hummingbirds had a spooky fun time and made lasting memories! Next week is Under the Sea week in Hummingbirds!

GET TO KNOW OUR MINISTER!

Our guest minister this week, Rev. Jeff Tacklind, has an unusually eclectic set of interests for a member of the clergy. Perhaps because he leads the Church by the Sea in Laguna Beach, California, he’s a passionate surfer ... or maybe he was called to the Church by the Sea because he loves surfing?! You’ll have to ask him about that. But check out his other interests when you read his bio on page 97.

SAFETY FIRST

The MSSA security team is at your service. If you have any emergency--medical or otherwise--call 911, but our seasoned team is here to help for non-emergency situations. If you have a safety issue or see suspicious activity anywhere on the grounds or at the Point, don't hesitate to call (931) 607-8615 after 5 pm or call the office during business hours. There are no silly concerns—it's better to call and quell your fears than to let something go because you are afraid of a false alarm.

Consider putting the security number by your home phone and/or plugging it into your cell phones.

Kids got cell phones? Plug the security number in those too.

Together we'll keep MSSA the safe haven it is!

We know, we know. There’s SO MUCH FUN to be had and you want to get there NOW! But there are kids and dogs everywhere, so slow down there, speed demon.

HARTON HALL: SUNDAY BUFFET

FROM THE ARCHIVES

As you pack up and return home remember to collect birth announcements, wedding invitations, newspaper articles, Christmas cards of members families, photographs, etc. through the winter to fill your family box. Mail them to the office c/o the Archives Committee or drop them off at the office if you come to the Mountain!

See you in 2024!

GOLF CARTS AVAILABLE TO BUY!

If you are interested in purchasing one of the season rental golf carts from Boswell's, give Housing a call at (931) 924-9000. Prices are discounted!

GOT SKUNKS?

Skunks abound every summer in Montegale. The Assembly critter removal folks do not trap in season, due to dogs and kids interfering with the traps.

Home Depot and other retail outlets sell Skunk Scram, which is a safe, natural granular substance that repels skunks in your yard.

PICKLEBALL HOURS

Monday-Saturday: 10:00 am-Noon

Daily: 2:30-5:30 pm
